c) U.S.-Japan Trade Council (Reg. #929)

III - ACTIVITIES

11. During this 6 month reporting period, have you engaged in any activities for or rendered any services to any foreign principal named in Items 8, 9, and 10 of this statement? Yes ☒ No ☐

If yes, identify each such foreign principal and describe in full detail your activities and services:

For activities and services rendered to Japanese Government, see attached addendum.

¹ The term "foreign principal" includes, in addition to those defined in section 1(b) of the Act, an individual or organization any of whose activities are directly or indirectly supervised, directed, controlled, financed, or subsidized in whole or in major part by a foreign government, foreign political party, foreign organization or foreign individual. (See Rule 100(a)(9)).

A registrant who represents more than one foreign principal is required to list in the statements he files under the Act only those foreign principals for whom he is not entitled to claim exemption under Section 3 of the Act. (See Rule 208.)

12. During this 6 month reporting period, have you on behalf of any foreign principal engaged in political activity² as defined below?

Yes ☒ No ☐

If yes, identify each such foreign principal and describe in full detail all such political activity, indicating, among other things, the relations, interests and policies sought to be influenced and the means employed to achieve this purpose. If the registrant arranged, sponsored or delivered speeches, lectures or radio and TV broadcasts, give details as to dates, places of delivery, names of speakers and subject matter.

Japanese Government

The answer to Item 11 has listed all of the activities of the registrant during the period in question. Some, but not all, of these activities constitute "political propaganda" within the meaning of the Act.

13. In addition to the above described activities, if any, have you engaged in activity on your own behalf which benefits any or all of your foreign principals?

Yes ☒ No ☐

If yes, describe fully.

During the period in question, Charles von Loewenfeldt personally served as vice president of the California Council for International Trade. The purpose of the CCIT is "to promote the growth of world trade by gathering and disseminating pertinent information; bringing together business leaders of foreign nations with those of California; encouraging firms not yet engaged in foreign trade to enter it; creating a favorable trade climate that will foster development of more industry and new business in California; and working towards elimination of trade barriers." Also, the secretariat for the CCIT was located within the office premises of Charles von Loewenfeldt, Inc. CCIT was, in other words, a separate client of Charles von Loewenfeldt, Inc. distinct and apart from all other CvL, Inc. clients.

In the sense that CCIT espouses and works to encourage "free trade" for the benefit of Californians, its interests parallel, in some instances, those of Japan and the other major nations that trade with the U.S.

² The term "political activities" means the dissemination of political propaganda and any other activity which the person engaging therein believes will, or which he intends to, prevail upon, indoctrinate, convert, induce, persuade, or in any other way influence any agency or official of the Government of the United States or any section of the public within the United States with reference to formulating, adopting, or changing the domestic or foreign policies of the United States or with reference to the political or public interests, policies, or relations of a government of a foreign country or a foreign political party.

ADDENDUM

Answers to Questions 11 and 12

For the Japanese Government through the U.S.-Japan Trade Council

1. Publications

(See preface to answer to Question 11 (Publications) in Supplemental Statement for period ending 5 July 1971.)

Publications distributed by registrant

State Barriers to World Trade

A detailed analysis of state restrictions on imported commodities, based on a survey of the practices of all 50 states.

U.S.-Japan Trade: A New Phase

A brief pamphlet outlining the dramatic shift in the balance of trade between the U.S. and Japan during the first four months of 1972.

United States Exports to Japan by Customs District, 1972

The latest in the Council's annual series presenting statistical data on U.S. shipments to Japan.

2. Conferences

(See preface to answer to Question 11 (Conferences) in Supplemental Statement for period ending 5 July 1971.)

Registrant organized a symposium in Pittsburgh on March 17-19 on intercultural communications between Japan and the U.S. The symposium brought together twelve Japan experts, half American and half Japanese, who discussed privately for several days various aspects of the cultural gap between the two countries. Among the Americans participating were Richard Thornburgh, U.S. Attorney for the Western District of Pennsylvania and Frank McNeil of the U.S. State Dept. The symposium ended with a public luncheon at which Consul General Sawaki spoke. Mr. Sawaki was thus afforded a forum to present the Japanese viewpoint on the subjects discussed. Approximately $5,200 was spent on this conference. A paper based on the conference was later prepared and distributed.

Registrant organized a symposium in San Francisco on March 24-26 on intercultural relations between Japan and the U.S. The nominal sponsors were the California Council for International Trade, the Japan Society of San Francisco, Oakland World Trade Club, Santa Clara Valley World Trade Club, World Affairs Council of Northern California and the World Trade Club of San Francisco. The U.S.-Japan Trade Council was listed, in alphabetical order, as one of the 7 co-sponsors. The symposium brought together nine Japan experts, some American and some Japanese, who discussed privately for two days various aspects of the cultural gap between the two countries. The symposium ended with a public luncheon at which Consul General Maeda spoke. Mr. Maeda was thus afforded a forum to present the Japanese viewpoint on the subjects discussed. Approximately $4,200 was spent on this conference.

Registrant organized a symposium in Charles, South Carolina, on April 14 on "Japan as an Expanding Market for the Southeastern United States." The symposium dealt with opportunities for U.S. businessmen to sell to and invest in Japan. Nominal co-sponsors were the Alabama Development Office, Florida Bureau of International Development, Georgia Department of Industry and Trade, Kentucky Dept. of Commerce, Mississippi Marketing Council, North Carolina Office of Industry, S. Carolina State Development Board, Tennessee Division of Industrial Development, Virginia International Trade Dept. and the U.S.-Japan Trade Council. Speakers included the Japanese Ambassador and a Council official, who were afforded a forum to present the Japanese viewpoint on the subjects discussed. Among the other speakers were Secretary of Commerce Frederick Dent and General Westmoreland. Approximately $5,000 was spent on organizing this conference.

3. Films

(See preface to answer to Question 11 (Films) in Supplemental Statement for period ending 5 July 1971.)

Michael Berger of Charles von Loewenfeldt, Inc. spent several weeks in Japan filming the latest series of TV clips to be shown in the U.S. Berger also prepared an outline of a script for a proposed documentary film on pollution in Japan.
